SUPPORT TITLES FOR MY WORLD 3 AND TEXTEASE

PLEASE NOTE: The following titles require My World 3 to run. (Users with the older My World for Windows will also be able to run these titles). The CD-ROM's also include versions of the Software in Textease format together with a Textease browser. The full version of Textease is required to access all functions.

The My World format self-installs. The Textease format must be manually installed. Please read the instruction booklet before loading the CD-ROM.

Further content is currently being added to these titles to reflect the changes in the National Curriculum. Please note that the My World 3 and Textease formats of the new 2009 version of the software will be on separate CD-ROM's.

There are 6 Early Years titles ( ages 4 -7) and seven Primary titles (ages 7-11). They are available individually or as three collections – Good Foundations, Starting Science and More Science. See below for the individual titles and further details. The colourful screens with varied activities and strong curricular links have a high graphic content to encourage discussion. They are suitable for individual work or group work using PC's or INTERACTIVE WHITEBOARDS and support a wide range of educational needs including EAL and Special Needs users. The six Early Years titles have speech support.

This software does not self-correct. Teachers who prefer children to make their own decisions appreciate that non-correcting screens give children the opportunity to discuss the answers and use the important word 'because' to justify their decisions. The activities may be adapted or modified and the changes may be saved. Currently, there are help / support buttons on all the screens. The new 2009 version will also have a 'no help' option. All of these titles are also available in Welsh.

Licenses - 5 user, 10 user and Site licenses may be purchased for these titles. Please refer to the relevant price codes for prices. VAT at 15 % applies on all prices.
